The Charleston papers this week contained the information that State Chief Constable Duncan destroyed $5,000 worth of contraband whiskey seized in that city.

Some people did not read the announcement that there would be a picnic of St. Philip's at Mr. D. E. Halfacre's Saturday. This is to remind them of the oversight.

A special from Laurens says that Laurens county farmers are preparing to plant twelve hundred acres in crimson clover this fall. It says the enterprise is not only the biggest thing on foot in Laurens, but surpasses anything of the kind in the state. Good for Laurens. Laurens is all right.

The Harley-Davidson motorcycle and side car attachment, in the hands of Mr. Alan Reighley, showed its strength and power Tuesday when it pulled Mr. H. M. Bryson's Ford from College hill to town. The Ford ran out of gasoline and Mr. Reighley happened along in time to be of service, and to show that his machine was some pilot and tug.

Its like will not soon happen again, we think. On Saturday there gathered at the home of Chief Justice Gary three classmates, all well over eighty years of age. They were Mrs. M. C. Cary, mother of the chief justice, Mrs. Alice Henderson of Coronaca and Mrs. Jane Gary of Kinards. Mrs. M. C. Cary is 83, and the other two ladies are 84.—Abbeville Press and Banner.

A gentleman who has narrowly escaped an accident with his car as a result of being blinded by the bright lights of a car approaching has suggested that it would only require a moment for the driver of a car running with the lights on full to turn on the more subdued lights upon approaching an advancing car on the road.—Spartanburg Herald.

To keep up with the march of progress that is on the road, the Newberry Coca Cola Bottling people in Newberry are having their place of business painted and kalsomined. This is not only in keeping with the spirit of the times in the line of improvement and advancement; it adds to the sanitary arrangements of the work. The management have an eye to their increasing business as well to the welfare of their patrons. Sam Grimes is doing the painting and kalsomining. This Grimes is alive to his job.

MONEY AND SERVICE

If it is money you wish to borrow, we have it. If it is service you wish, please us by asking for one or both.

In Aug., 1915, we published the following notice:

"DO NOT SACRIFICE YOUR COTTON"

"With the facilities offered us through the Federal Reserve System, we are now prepared to loan every farmer in Newberry County enough money to prevent a sacrifice of his 1915 COTTON CROP. If the price of cotton continues below the cost of production, we feel sure that no intelligent farmer will voluntarily throw his crop on the market. With this idea in view, we have prepared ourselves to assist you. If you wish to avail yourself of our services, confer with some of the officers of the Bank at your convenience."

How well we carried out the above is for the farmers themselves to say. With the Federal Reserve System in full operation, we are now in a better position than in 1915 to render the farmers an even greater service. Come in and talk with us.
